

AFFIDAVIT OF SALES CONTRACT

PFHA Rule Book, Chapter Two, Section XII, B, page 50:

“Definition of an Amateur Owner. . . The purchaser under an installment method of payment shall be considered the owner of the horse for purposes of this definition if the purchaser, either before of at the time of the competition in question, files an affidavit on a form provided by the Association for this purpose that describes certain relevant information about the purchase.”

This statement will be submitted to the Association office with the results of the competition. If the Regional Group sponsoring the event does not procure the required documents, that Regional Group will be fined an appropriate fee. In the event a person files a fraudulent affidavit, the Association shall levy an appropriate fine.

A person who believes that such a fine is not due shall have the ability to file an appeal with the National Hearing Committee as defined in Chapter One within thirty (30) days after receiving notice of such fine. Said appeal must contain a written statement specifying the grounds for the appeal. If no appeal is filed, or if the appeal is denied, the fine must be paid within thirty (30) days of the notice or denial. FAILURE TO PAY SAID FINE SHALL RESULT IN AN AUTOMATIC SUSPENSION FROM ALL ASSOCIATION ACTIVITIES UNTIL THE FINE IS PAID.
