INSTRUCTIONS FOR PROCESSING ON NEXT PAGE.

INSTRUCTIONS:

1. This affidavit does NOT change the recorded owner maintained in the PFHA records. In order to change the recorded owner, the ORIGINAL Horse Registration Certificate for the horse being sold or transferred to the buyer must be submitted to PFHA. Complete the "Transfer of Ownership" block and the "Signature" block on the back of the ORIGINAL Horse Registration Certificate. Please remit the $55.00 (U.S. dollars) fee to transfer ownership for the horse. A filing fee of $40.00 is due when filing this affidavit, payable to PFHA.

2. This form is used to notify the Paso Fino Horse Association that the horse has been purchased by the buyer. This will allow the buyer to compete the horse even if the PFHA Horse Registration Certificate has not been received by the buyer prior to the competition. This form allows the buyer to compete in Amateur Owner classes, if the owner qualifies as an amateur.

3. According to the PFHA Rule Book, Chapter Two, Section XII, B, the purchaser under an installment method of payment shall be considered the owner of the horse for purposes of this definition if the purchaser, either before or at the time of the competition in question, files this affidavit.

4. If the new owner is eligible to be an Amateur Owner and has not been certified by the Association as being an Amateur, please complete and submit an Application for Amateur Owner/Senior Amateur Owner Card. The Amateur Owner/Senior Amateur Owner Card Application can be downloaded from the PFHA website at www.pfha.org

5. In the event a person files a fraudulent affidavit, the Association shall levy an appropriate fine. A person who believes that such a fine is not due shall have the ability to file an appeal with the National Hearing Committee as defined in Chapter One within 30 days after receiving notice of such fine. Said appeal must contain a written statement specifying the grounds for the appeal. If no appeal is filed, or if the appeal is denied, the fine must be paid within 30 days of the notice or denial. FAILURE TO PAY SAID FINE SHALL RESULT IN AN AUTOMATIC SUSPENSION FROM ALL ASSOCIATION ACTIVITIES UNTIL THE FINE IS PAID.

6. This form may be submitted via the show secretary at a competition. Original Registration Certificate may be submitted to the show secretary at a competition or mailed to:
